Aarhus. Mit einem auch von den Ausstellern kaum erwarteten Erfolg endete in Vilhelmsborg unweit von Aarhus die diesjährige Elite-Fohlenauktion Dänisches Warmblut. Die 39 verkauften Fohlen brachten einen Erlös von rund 522.000 Euro.

39 out of 53 auction foals changed ownership Saturday night at the Danish Warmblood Elite Foal Auction at Vilhelmsborg near Aarhus and produced a turnover of 3,892,000 DKK equalling 522,000 EUR. The 39 foals attained an average price of 99,795 DKK (13,400 EUR) which is the highest average price to date at the Danish Warmblood Elite Foal Auction.

The auction committee finds it very satisfactory that the average price has not reached such a high level because of a few extraordinarily expensive foals but rather because most foals have sold at very attractive prices.

A knock-down price of 40,000 EUR was attained by the show jumping colt Unforgettable S by Untouchable x Cassini I bred by Sally-Ann & Flemming Schultz. This formidable colt remains in Danish ownership.

40,000 EUR was also paid for the Dressage Colt Foal of the Year, Tophøjs Tebaldo by Tailormade Temptation x Blue Hors Don Romantic bred by Anette Nilausen & Niels-Jørgen Johansen and purchased by a Norwegian buyer.

Dressage Filly Foal of the Year, Schwarze Schwalbe Macohl by Sezuan x Schwadroneur bred by Frank Jensen & Thomas Bach Jensen became the most expensive filly and sold for 35,000 EUR to a Danish Grand Prix dressage stable
